CDA Local Poetry Winners Announced by Grand Regent

In an effort to stimulate creative writing in local parochial schools, Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America sponsored five schools from the South Bay area in the National Poetry Contest of the CDA. Schools taking part included St. Lawrence Martyr, St. James, American Martyrs, Bishop Montgomery and Marymount. On behalf of the local court, Mrs. Stacy Rodman, grand regent, awarded cash prizes to first, second, and third place winners in each division. The three divisions are grades 4 to 6; 7 to 9; and 10 to 12.

Local first, second and third place winners were:

Division I — grades 4 to 6; winners were Daniel Cranfill, grade 6; Lynda Duffy, grade 6; Charlene Kobiskie, grade 6.

Division II — grade 7 to 9; winners were Lorraine Gompert, grade 7; Bernard Fox, grade 8; Susan Yeakel, grade 7.

Division III — grades 10 to 12; winners were Judith Jackson, grade 12; Sharon Hogan, grade 11; Jacqueline Larkins, grade 11.

Local winners will be in competition for state judging State winners will then go on to the national. Announcement of state winners will be made in Pasadena on May 3 at the 19th Biennial State Conference of the California State Court of the Catholic Daughters of America. National winners will be notified in August. State and national winners will be cash prizes.

On behalf of this local court, Mrs. Rodman, grand regent, presented each winner with a certificate and a cash award.

Nine winning poems have been submitted to State Court competition for prizes of $25, $15 and $10 for each division. State awards will go on to National competition for prizes of $100, $50 and $25.

Women's Council Plans Social Event

According to Mrs. Clarence Turner, president of the Women's Council of St. Philomena Catholic Church, a social evening has been planned for April 15 at 8 p.m. Donations will be $1 per person and the event will be held in the school hall, 21900 S. Main St.

Door prizes will be given and refreshments will be served by Mrs. William Hopkins, hospitality chairman, and her committee members which include Mmes. Hubert Logan, Carl Hilbun and Anthony Silva. In charge of the affair will be Mrs. William Cary, ways and means chairman. Assisting Mrs. Cary will be her committee, Mmes. Marty Lydon, Walt Eilers, Robert Gese and Robert Walsh.

St. Joan's Guild-headed by Mrs. Matthew Barbato will assist.

Recently the members of the Women's Council met for a potluck dinner. The ways and means fund raising affair proved successful, stated Mrs. Cary, chairman of the event.

Sewing Day Held

Mrs. Melba Sprout, 1327 Beech Ave., Torrance, invites any of the ladies of St. Andrew's whether they are members of guilds or not, who are interested in sewing for the Bazaar, to meet at her home anytime from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday, to work on their sewing projects and to exchange ideas for further work.

Ladies are requested to bring any sewing which they are doing at present, and there will be some material available for those who are not already busy with a project.

It is hoped that this will interest many ladies who would enjoy a little fellowship with their sewing, and it is planned that it will be a weekly event, continuing through the summer. Remember, Thursday is Sewing Day at Mrs. Sprout's, and all are most welcome to attend!
